Should I Be A Lawyer: The Experience

Sunday, March 20th from 9 am to 1 pm, 512 Duncan Student Center

- John Moore (class of '82) is hosting this hands-on workshop to help students get a better grasp on what it is that lawyers actually do. The workshop will follow a legal issue from start to finish. Participants will be divided into two teams to assist an attorney in representing either the Plaintiff or Defendant throughout the day. Students will help gather facts, conduct legal research and analysis and develop a plan for fact-finding in discovery. Each team will prepare a plan for advocating their position and negotiating a resolution through a simulated mediation. The day will also include a discussion of law school, legal careers and position your future career as an attorney at the highest aspirational levels. The event is limited to 24 participants. Watch out for more information on this soon!
