Berry, Appleman & Leiden is hiring several full-time, entry level immigration assistant positions. This is shared with us by Notre Dame alumna, Caitlin Crahan, ND '20. She says:

Berry Appleman & Leiden, is building up three new legal teams over the next couple of months, and looking to recruit several entry-level paralegals to work in Chicago. The Immigration Assistants manage the visa application process for employment-based immigrants, in several categories of work visa, and my team in Chicago is incredible—it's a wonderful workplace and great company. I'd be more than happy to speak with them if they have specific questions. The posting is on Handshake and at the BAL website.
